PUBLIC SERVICE ANNOUNCEMENT

PAYMENT OF FEES, LICENSES AND CHARGES

March 31, 2010 is the end of the Turks and Caicos Islands Government 2009/10 financial year. The Ministry of Finance hereby gives notice to the Business Community and General Public throughout the Turks and Caicos Islands transacting business with the TCI Government that all outstanding fees, licenses, fines, permits, charges, etc for the current financial year 2009/2010 is due and payable before March 31, 2010.

A number of new compliance initiatives will come into force by various government departments and statutory bodies. In order to receive public services from these government departments and agencies you will be required to have your Business License current, National Insurance payments up to date, National Health Insurance up to date, Work Permits and Permanent Residency fees current, Crown Land Rents payments current, Water bills paid up to date, Scholarship Contributions paid up to date, all land related documents properly registered, Vehicle and Driver's Licenses paid up to date, school fees paid, Stamp Duty on Land and Vehicle hire transactions paid up to date, Hotel and Restaurant taxes paid up to date, etc.

Persons with return or dishonored cheques must settle their indebtedness immediately as these matters have been filed with the courts for legal action. Businesses and individuals with similar outstanding fees and arrears will be served with court notices shortly if they fail to comply and regularize their indebtedness to the Turks and Caicos Islands Government.
